

Call for Nominations for the Ed Addison Distinguished Service Award 2023

The Awards Committee is seeking nominations for the Ed Addison Distinguished Service Award, the highest award of the Wildlife Disease Association. Its purpose is to honor a member of long standing who, by their outstanding accomplishments in research, teaching, and other activities, including participation in WDA affairs, has made noteworthy contributions supporting the mission and values of the WDA.

The closing date for nominations is April 15th, 2023.

Nominations should include the following:

- a) Letter of nomination specifically addressing the selection criteria for the award that are not otherwise represented in the candidate's CV. Criteria include that the candidate:
  - Is a long-standing member of the WDA.
  - Has demonstrated significant contributions to the field of wildlife and ecosystem health, research and/or management, teaching, and active participation in WDA affairs.
  - Has made significant contributions supporting the mission and values of the WDA
- b) Candidate's curriculum vitae or equivalent.

Email nominations and documentation to Awards Committee Chair, Laurie Baeten, awards@wildlivedisease.org by April 15th, 2023.
