Vet Technician/Wildlife Care Specialist

Tucson Wildlife Center is the only wild animal rescue and hospital center in Southern Arizona. The Center is looking for an individual with a passion for the care of sick, injured, or orphaned wildlife in the region. Individuals will join a team that understands and is able to work with unique and challenging medical cases, while practicing all safety procedures.

Requirements: One-year veterinary technician experience or equivalent required, three years preferred. Veterinary Technician certification and wildlife experience preferred.

Excellent animal assessment, handling and evaluation skills required. Excellent understanding of animal anatomy and the ability to communicate with veterinarians, and medical team regarding injured anatomical site required. Competency in the understanding of animal care during rescue, rehabilitation and release and providing medical services, including exams, radiographs, and anesthesia. Must be able to lift at least 40.

Full time
Pay: $17.00 - $20.00 per hour

Benefits:
· Paid time off for full-time employees

Schedule:
· 10 hour Day shifts, three or four days/week
· Weekend availability

Experience:
· Veterinary Technician degree or equivalent
· Veterinary Technician experience: 1 year (Required)
· Wildlife Rehabilitation care

Benefits:
· Paid time off
Healthcare setting:

- Hospital

Schedule:

- 10 hour shift
- Day shift
- Weekends as needed

Location: 13273 E. Speedway Blvd., Tucson, Arizona
Position is an in-person job

Send resume to our recruiter:
Cornerstone HR Consulting
maidenanna@gmail.com