

Application Form for WDA Student Travel Grant 2022

Name: _____

Email address: _____ Phone number: _____

The Student Travel Grant only applies to the Annual International Conference. This year’s International WDA conference will be held in Madison, WI, USA July 23 – 29, 2022. If you intend to participate in one of the local Section conferences (EWDA, WDA-AA, etc.), please don’t apply for this grant. In this case, please contact the local Sections / Section Student chapters to inquire if travel grants are available.

Students awarded a travel grant will have up to one week to acknowledge receipt of the award (by responding to the email notification) and up to two weeks from initial notification to provide proof of conference registration. If these deadlines are not met, the student will forfeit the award and it will be offered to the next runner-up.

Please note that previous travel grant recipients are not eligible to receive this award again.

Are you currently a member of the Wildlife Disease Association? YES NO

How long have you been a WDA member? _____

Which country (countries) do you have permanent citizenship for?

Please list your educational background and current program in which you are enrolled (including the location (country) of your university):
